WILL NORMAN GRIGG is an award-winning columnist and investigative journalist, who became a contributor to The New American magazine in 1990, and was brought on staff in 1993. He was a Senior Editor for that publication between 1994 and October 2006. Will's digging for the truth has made a difference. One man, targeted for execution by Vladimir Putin's regime, credits Mr. Grigg's exposes with helping to save his life. Another innocent man slated for professional ruin and perhaps even a prison term - a veteran Pennsylvania counter-narcotics agent who exposed a CIA-supported drug network in the Northeast - credits Will's exposes with saving his career and freedom. Will has written five books, including "Freedom on the Altar: The United Nations Crusade against God and Family", "America's Engineered Decline" and his most recent "Liberty In Eclipse". He has done numerous national speaking tours, appeared on national television, and scores of national radio interviews. Will is currently Editor-at-Large for The Right Source Media Enterprises including the exciting new e-zine Pro Libertate. We are very privileged to have Mr. Grigg return to UROC and update us on the loss of freedoms being forced upon us by the powerful Homeland Security. What can we do? Where do we go from here? Join us for an exciting hour of fact filled insight to our Homeland Security.

SHERIFF RICHARD MACK is the Sheriff that stood up to defend the U.S. Constitution and the autonomy of Sheriffs across the country. His lawsuit in 1994 and subsequent victory at the U.S. Supreme Court proved once and for all that the Sheriff is indeed the ultimate law enforcement authority in his county and in this country. What rights does the U.S. Constitution actually guarantee? Why is it important to keep our means of self-defense? What can we do to remain strong as individuals and families, so that we can remain strong as a nation? What can the sheriff do to protect us from all enemies, both foreign and domestic? A Sheriff is not a bureaucrat and he does not answer to one; he answers to his boss, the citizens. The Sheriff is the employee of the people and exists to serve and protect them in all matters. To uphold and defend the U.S. Constitution is a sheriff's primary duty and sworn responsibility. How do we "re-educate" our Sheriffs of their duty to the people, not the federal government? What about all the federal funding, how does it affect a Sheriff's ability to do his job? Sheriff Mack is the man to answer all our questions. Be prepared to learn what incredible power the people, through their elected Sheriff, really have available to them if they decide to use it. You will definitely be enlightened and empowered after hearing Sheriff Mack.

JOEL SKOUSEN is currently the publisher of the World Affairs Brief - a weekly Internet news analysis service. He is a political scientist, by training, specializing in foreign policy, as well as the philosophy of law and U.S. Constitutional theory. Each week he focuses on helping his readers understand the hidden globalist agenda behind U.S. foreign and domestic policy. He has developed a working theory to explain the West's conflicting policies of both supporting and attacking, at different times and places, seemingly contradictory positions on terrorism, Communist-backed revolutions, drugs, money laundering, and organized crime. As a former Marine infantry officer and fighter pilot, he is intimately familiar with security and defense issues. Mr. Skousen travels widely and reads and speaks multiple foreign languages--enabling him to access a wide range of foreign reports. His insights into the future of this country based on current governmental decisions help us to understand what we need to do now. Come hear Mr. Skousen explain the current trend to disarmament, where the Iranian situation will lead this country and the world, and how the Health Care reform bills will all eventually force everyone into a single payer government system. Mr. Skousen will give us look into the future to explain the present attacks to our freedom and where they will lead this country.
